

Rely on Rick Strobl

Rick Strobl earned a college degree in Business Administration and Economics.

He has more than 20 years of experience in preparing income taxes for individuals and corporations, and has been self-employed since 1990.

Rick has lived in Vermont since 1984, and believes that “serving te community is of the utmost importance.” Because of that, he has sat on five nonprofit boards over the past 20 years, usually as treasurer.

He loves gatherings with his large and ever-growing family. Between he and his wife, they have 13 children and nine grandchildren, with more on the way.

He also continues to serve his church in many capacities, from running the youth program to financial secretary and in the choir.

You can depend on Rick.
