

Ash Trees Tagged for Removal

Date: 12/22/23

All trees were identified and recorded as part of ash tree field inventory. All trees selected for removal are on Town of Chester property.

Tag Number	Location	Additional Criteria for Removal
A1	Behind the Academy Building, to the left of the Brookside Trail bridge, at the end of the fence marking the property line.	Tree in fair condition, dropping upper branches near fence along adjacent private property line.
A2	Behind the Academy Building, to the left of the Brookside Trail bridge, on the bank of Lover's Land Brook.	Tree in fair condition. Root system significantly undermined by Lover's Lane Brook.
A3	Behind the Academy Building, to the left of the Brookside Trail bridge, on the bank of Lover's Land Brook.	Tree is poor condition, dropping dead branches.
A4	Behind the Academy Building, to the left of the Brookside Trail bridge, approx. twenty' from the property line and twenty feet from the bank of Lover's Land Brook.	Tree in poor condition and has been damaged by partially fallen snag.
A5	Behind the Academy Building, to the left of the Brookside Trail bridge, on the bank of Lover's Lane Brook.	Tree in poor condition. Roots undermined by Lover's Lane Brook.
A6	Behind the Academy	Tree is dead and in close proximity to pedestrian bridge

	Building, near the far end of the bridge, to the left.	leading to the Brookside Trail.
A7	Behind the Academy Building, near the far end of the bridge, to the left.	Tree is in poor condition and in proximity to pedestrian bridge leading to the Brookside Trail.
A8	Behind the Academy Building, near the far end of the bridge, to the left.	Tree is in fair condition and in proximity to pedestrian bridge leading and a portion of the Brookside Trail.
A9	Behind the Academy Building, near the far end of the bridge, to the right.	Tree is in poor condition with a partially split trunk and is dropping upper branches.
A10	Behind the Academy Building, near the far end of the bridge, to the right.	Tree is in poor condition in a low lying area prone to flooding.
A11	Near the rear left corner of the Yosemite firehouse.	Tree is in poor condition, rooted in an unstable riverbank, and leaning toward the historic Yosemite firehouse.
A12	Near the rear left corner of the Yosemite firehouse.	Tree is in fair condition and in close proximity to power poles and lines.
A13	To the left of the Yosemite firehouse, toward the property line.	Tree is in fair condition and has been damaged by flooding.
A14	To the left of the Yosemite firehouse, toward the property line.	Tree is in poor condition and is dropping upper branches.
A15	Behind Town Hall. near the handicap ramp.	Tree is in fair condition and is leaning over parking lot and handicap ramp entrance to Town Hall

All trees selected for removal have been marked with a numbered aluminum tag with an orange stripe.

All marked trees have been designated in ash tree inventory application as “to be removed.”

Field Crew:

John Russell

Arne Jonynas

Robert Nied